

Annotated Bibliography

Non-Fiction

Boyington, B., Butler, A. T., Higdon, N., Huff, M., & Andy Lee Roth. (2022). The Media and Me. Seven Stories Press.

-A book that is designed for upper elementary students to encourage them to be independent media users.

Carey, M. J. (2020). Three Little Hackers.

- A supportive narrative to guide parents and children on important conversation about social networks and privacy online. This title plays on the classic story of the 3 little pigs but adapts it into a story of being safe online.

Grant, J. (2022). Can You Believe It? Kids Can Press Ltd.

-“fake news” and a guide to how to spot the differences while navigating your online content .

Heitner, D. (2018). SCREENWISE : helping kids thrive (and survive) in their digital world.

-this book helps parents and students set themselves up in the world of technology. It teaches and aids in navigating a world of being social in the digital world.

Mattson, K. (2022). Digital citizenship in action : empowering students to engage in online communities. Hawker Brownlow Education.

-A book that focuses on trust and understanding in a digital community. This is a guide to helping students develop best practices as digital citizens.

Pearlman, C. (2022). First Phone. Penguin.

- A guide of images to help navigate the digital world in a fun and visually interactive way that is engaging for its intended audience.

Rhora, M. (2017). Cyber Smart Parents. Blurb.

- This is a guide to developing a strong digital mindset. It is designed to help elementary students and beyond while they try and navigate the relatively new landscape of being online. It is designed to prepare for both the risks and benefits that will be faced as a digital citizen.

Stowell, L., & Leschnikoff, N. (2016). Staying safe online. Usborne Publishing Ltd..

-This is a resource for navigating time spent online, it provides a series of tips, tricks, and tools for staying safe while online.

Annotated Bibliography

Fiction

Anton, C., & Lewis, S. (2017). A smart girl's guide. Digital world : how to connect, share, play, and keep yourself safe. American Girl.

- A book of quizzes, safety tests, and advice. This book focuses on the digital world and dealing with cyberbullying.

Emerson, M. (2020). Kid Youtuber. Emerson Publishing House.

-A story that follows friends as they create content for YouTube that happens to go viral. The results are not what the friends had hoped for .

Korman, G. (2021). Unplugged. HarperCollins.

-a novel about a group of students who are forced to unplug and find that there is a ton to the world when you choose to be a part of it instead of on devices. This is a book of adventure and chaos and experiencing life when you are not on a screen.

Martin, L. (2020). Glitch. HarperCollins.

- Enemies from the start, the main characters in this book realize how technology and the decisions they make have long lasting effects on them and the world around them.

Nina Du Thaler. (2017). Tom Tames His Online World.

- Designed to educate on cyber safety, including - internet safety, cyberbullying, social media, online presence. This book is a collection of fictional stories that teach about Internet safety.

Nina Du Thaler. (2019). Dennis and his online gaming adventure! Bright Zebra.

-A book that focuses on being a good digital citizen through teaching internet safety, cyberbullying, social media, and being online through fictional stories. This book is a great way to teach about Internet safety using engaging content.

Vasudevan, A. (2023). Cyberama.

-An adventure cybersecurity book, the middle school protagonist in the story fights cyber criminals with some of her best friends, and her AI robot.